On a charge of tying her nephew, Louis Terren, aged seven years, with a rope and then whipping him, Maria Valencia was fined $10 Friday afternoon by judge Adrian Pool in the corporation court. The boy, when placed on the stand, testified that his aunt had tied him up with a rope and whipped him. The defendant stated that her nephew had been left with her by his mother, her sister, who was at present living in Chihuahua. She testified that she came here from that city some time in July. "Well, you have lived in a civilized country long enough," replied judge Pool, "and the PLUMBERS SAY NOISE IS HURTING BUSINESS Alleging that if the noise made by the machinery in the store, 411 South Stanton street, is not stopped they will be put out of business, the Guheen brothers, proprietors of the plumbing brothers, proprietors of the plumbing shop which adjoins that building on Overland street, swore out a complaint against H. D. Soulhas, its proprietor, for maintaining a nuisance. The case was scheduled to come up in the corporation court Friday afternoon, but was postponed until Monday afternoon. Soulhas is at present engaged in making ice boxes for the Paso del Norte hotel. He stated that the city had made him move his machinery to its present location. He said that at first he had placed it in another room, but there were objections raised to the noise, and the city officials ordered him to put it in the room where it now stands.

MRS. DAVID T. HUME. Chicago, Ill., Sept. 21.-Mrs. David T. Hume, wife of commissioner Hume of the Killmanjaro district of British Africa, is here, en route to Baker City, Oregon, to pay a visit to her parents. Mrs. Hume is one of the few women ever received by the sultan of Zanzibar in his palace. She was permitted to inspect the royal castle, with its rmous store of treasures, valued at millions of dollars, and was also allowed to meet the women of the harem. 170 in all. Mrs. Hume said that one of them, a remarkably beautiful young girl, forcibly attracted her, because she looked like an American. Mrs. Hume says she afterward learned that the girl was the daughter of a San Francisco expenter, but was never informed how the young woman came to be one of the many slaves of the sultan.
